

ANDREW JACKSON'S HERMITAGE

Get into the holiday spirit with a season full of Jacksonian charm!

Treat your loved ones, or yourself, to unforgettable experiences and unique gifts this season. Step back to the 1830s with Jacksonian Christmas Tours at The Hermitage, available on November 28, December 5 & 6, and December 12 & 13, and experience the holiday traditions of Andrew Jackson and his family.

Celebrate the season in style at the Jacksonian Christmas Festival at Tulip Grove on December 13 & 14, featuring festive activities, music, and holiday cheer.

Discover the magic of the holidays at The Hermitage Museum Store, where unique presidential-inspired gifts, handcrafted Tennessee treasures, elegant jewelry, historic books, and festive ornaments bring the spirit of Andrew Jackson's legacy to your celebrations. Every purchase supports the preservation of this National Historic Landmark, making your shopping truly meaningful this season—shop in person or online at shopthehermitage.com. Make this holiday season one to remember with history, heritage, and a little Jacksonian magic!
